

ARIZONA CODE OF JUDICIAL ADMINISTRATION
Proposal Cover Sheet
Part 6: Probation
Chapter 1: General Administration
Section 6-105.01: Powers and Duties of Officers Evidence-Based Practices

1. Effect of the proposal:

Revisions are to clearly distinguish between adult and juvenile probation practices and terms. Technical change to section B related to A.R.S. § 13-805(A).

2. Significant new or changed provisions:

Removed reference to .01 version since the Courts will be governed by this updated code under the old ACJA section number. The .01 version will be deleted.

(re-numbering 6-105.01 as 6-105 also requires technical amendments to ACJA 6-113, 6-208 & 6-209 to remove the “.01” reference. These additional three technical amendments will be routed and take effect in conjunction with this code change)

A. Definitions

- New definitions – AZYAS, AZYAS disposition tool, and juvenile case plan.
- Modified definitions – Juvenile court consequence and juvenile intensive probation.
- Removed definition – youth assessment.

E. Duties of Probation Officers

(3)(f) – reorganized and clarified “whose whereabouts are unknown”.

(3)(h) – updated the youth assessment language to reflect changes as result of SB1073; clarified the use of the AZYAS tools.

(3)(m) – language was removed since it was repealed in the 2021 legislative session.

3. Committee actions and comments:

4. Controversial issues:

5. Recommendation: Recommend approval.
